Resting Place of Harav R' Avrohm Hakohen Herman and his wife Mrs. Blimle ז"ה

Last Monday, on the yahrtzeit of Harav R' Eliezer Aba Herman ז"ל, his son R' Oizer addressed the crowd of participants which included many grandchildren. His words of inspiration for the sake of the cemetery greatly stressed the responsibility upon the descendants, especially since the children of R' Berl Hakohen Herman ז"ל have already sponsored 50% of the expenses.

Family members were inspired to donate generously to the cause; we hope to begin restoration work shortly.

Headed by: R' Zev Volf Zicherman, Rosh Kahalof Mukacs \ R' Yitzchok Mordche Hakohen Pollack Upon hearing about the big danger the cemetery is in, family members are determined to make the necessary arrangements to enable construction of the new gate and to have the holy site cleaned.

All necessary permits are being readied and thorough evaluations are being done so as not to postpone the holy work.

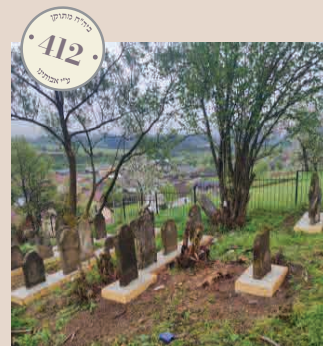

Restoration of tombstones complete!

Sponsored by Harav R' Yitzchok Dovid Friedman and through the efforts of his children

Construction of gate complete!
We will continue with restoration of tombstones

We strongly appeal to all descendants to assist us in continued restoration work in the cemetery: to erect and restore tombstones that are strewn all over. Substantial sums are needed so we can go on with our holy work.

Tombstones neglected

Family members received the evaluation report that the cemetery is in a very bad neglected abandoned condition. Therefore, the committee chairmen are very active in recruiting the descendants to participate asap; every day counts.
