Zarnowiec, Poland Beautiful meeting held to rescue the cemetery, resting site of Baal Dodoim Basudah זצ"ל

Neglected gravestones lying around

An important meeting was held in the home of R Benzion Duv Halberstam Shlita, the son-in-law of Rabbi Liebel Stempel Shlita of London, grandson of Baal Doduim Basudah, with the participation of the descendants and the HFPJC organization.

Firstly, R Moshe Dov Lenzky spoke, recalling the terrible abandonment of the sacred place and emphasizing that immediate actions must be taken. Then stood up the esteemed R Efraim Gershon Baron Shlita, recounting stories and statements that the holy men of that generation said about Baal Dodoim Basudah. Lastly, the HFPJC members provided a more brief explanation and highlighted the tremendous privilege of doing something for the Tzadik, especially the grandchildren, thereby obtaining such a great meilitz yosher.

They mentioned that it is essential for everyone to donate significant sums, above one's means, because if money won't be a deterrent, then the work can be started immediately. The gathered crowd came forward with beautiful sums to be able to start with the renovation work and arrange all the necessary papers, maps, permits, etc.

In the following weeks, more meetings will follow in order to reach the full sum required to complete the holy project.

Biel- Kisdobra

2nd phase Fence Restoration

In response to the increasing enthusiasm for the new fence construction, R Yoel ben R' Yida Zvi Gelb stepped in to continue building the fence, which encompasses a significant portion of the cemetery. Understandably, this undertaking involves great efforts and huge expenses. The committee is urgently appealing to the descendants to participate with generous sums in honor of our ancestors, and the good merit will benefit all of us.

Puspokladany, Hungary

Continuation of work- pouring new foundation on the original one and erecting approximately 40 gravestones surrounding the Ohel.

The remaining 250 gravestones are in appalling condition

We currently implore the remaining descendants: now that the grandsons of Baal Yad Yosef are putting in tireless efforts on restoring honor to his sacred resting site, it is the right time to continue erecting all of the gravestones to their proper dignity.

To take part in this big mitzva, please reach out to the chairman committee, Harav Duvid Pinchus Mendlowitz, or call Avoseinu office at ext. 303.
