Necessary Permits Received

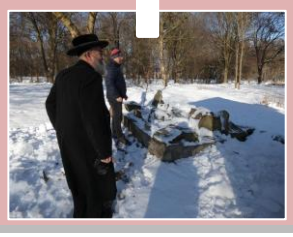
The wonderful news was greeted with great joy by all those involved in the holy undertaking of rescuing the old cemetery, that finally, with great Siyata Dishmaya, after so many prolonged barriers, the essential permits have been obtained with much hard work and money.

Fallen, semi-buried gravestones in an ashamed condition.

Cemetery terribly overgrown, and not surrounded by a fence at all.

Tyczyn, Poland

Hfpjc members while going through all the preparations of the cemetery's construction, and marking the resting place of the father of the holy brothers (Rabbi R' Elimelch M'Lizensk and Rabbi R' Zisha M'Hanipoli), according to the testimony of a Tyczyn descendant, where a new stone is now being prepared to be erected for the yahrtzeit of Rabbi R' Elimelch on the 21'st of Uder.



Moisei, Romania

Work continued

Despite the bad weather, work continues on erecting gravestones in the old area of the cemetery

Zarnowiec, Poland

After much effort, an old map of the cemetery was finally found, revealing that the cemetery's borders are pretty much larger than previously estimated. It is now in plan to hire a surveyor who will precisely follow the old map and mark the cemetery's boundaries, so that a fence can be built as soon as possible.

You may be entitled to one of the following benefits:

At the same time, the campaign of:
"לעשות רצון צדיק"
is being strengthened, as the 29'th of Shvat approaches, the yahrtzeit of the Baal Doduim Basudah ז"ע.
The committee is strongly hoping that important individuals would join the campaign, to help gather more sponsors who will grab the extraordinary opportunity of enabling the construction of the fence.
Take into account the tremendous zechua of rescuing the holy tzaddik the Baal Dodoim Basudah ז"ע.

נפטרים תנחומים

With hearts full of pain, we share in the sorrow of the esteemed R' Yosef Hersh Weinstock, committee of Dubienka, and his dear sons, as they mourn the loss of their dear wife/mother.
May they be comforted among the mourners of Yerushalayim and may they know of no more pain!
