After

The tombstone of Rabbi Bezalel Farkas is being nicely repainted.

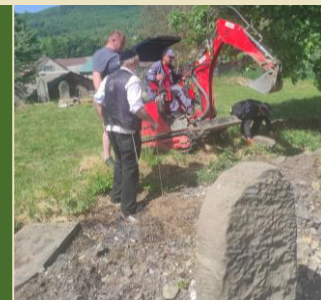

Synevyr, Ukraine

Great joy surrounds the esteemed descendants when hearing the great news about the beautiful progress at the Synevyr cemetery, where many abandoned tombstones were discovered.

Also, during the work, the entire upper section of the lost headstone of Rabbi Betzalel Farkas was found.

Strong cooperation is expected from the other descendants, who will generously participate in the great merit of the rescue of the cemetery!

Part of the beautiful work

Head of Committee: On behalf of the Klein family- R' Chaim Hersh and his son R' Yoel Klein, On behalf of the Farkas family- R' Betzalel Katz, and R' Shimon Katz, grandson of the Gavod of Tosh in Monsey, and the family of R' Shulem Schwimmer

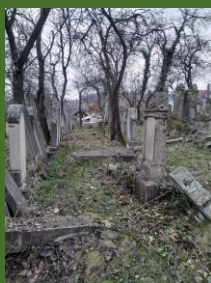

Dej, Romania

Preparation for the holy undertaking of saving the important cemetery in Dej

A strong awakening among all the Dej descendants upon receiving the great news that the cemetery renovation is about to start very soon! This sacred cemetery serves as the resting place of many holy tzadikim of Dej and has remained a site where one can pour out their heart with prayer.

Preparations are now being made for the commencement of the sacred work.

It is greatly anticipated that all descendants will understand the tremendous privilege of participating with generous donations. The merit of the holy tzadikim will surely protect them forever.
