עוררו ישנים משינתכם

Tremendous inspiration among honorable sponsors to participate in the urgent restoration endeavor in the cemetery of Kechnece, Slovakia

- The cemetery's integrity is jeopardized by the recent agricultural activities in the area.
- There are unfortunately no known descendants of this town to look after the cemetery's preservation
- Part of the needed funds has already been collected. It is still necessary to receive another few donations of people seeking zechusim for the upcoming yom hadin
- To join this invaluable mitzvah, please send in your kind donation to: Avoyseinu – 616 Bedford Ave. #2-B – Brooklyn, NY 11249
 You can also contact R' Yechiel Mechel Fischbein and R' Yaakov Shulem Steinberg at 347-581-7190, or Avoyseinu at 718-640-1470 ext. 305

Cemetery in Kechnece unfenced, and in danger of being cultivated as a part of the agricultural activities nearby. A fence is urgently needed!

Special Column:

Objective: Comments and Clarifications
 To elucidate different aspects of cemetery preservation

The amazing achievement of the 200 restored cemeteries is followed by a deep inspiration among other family members who wish to partake in this mitzvah.

Therefore, we have launched this column in which issues will be addressed, i.e.: Frequently asked questions – important things to bear in mind when visiting a cemetery – practical advice for cemetery preservation etc.

The public can now receive by email three Yiddish pamphlets concerning cemetery restoration, maintenance and a comprehensive questions and answer booklet of FAQ's.
