

There are no words to express our heartfelt thanks to our dear, esteemed friend, Reb Smil Szabó and family who arranged for us a beautiful, inspiring Shabbos, in honor of the bar mitzvah of their dear son Yechezkel Shraga, a dear talmid of Nachlas Avos.

Additionally, we express our sincere thanks to the Budapest community, which is lead by Rabbi M. T. Weissberger shlit"a, Rav Adas Yereim orthodox Jewish Community in Budapest.

Blessed are the eyes that observed the bar mitzvah celebration; the beautiful divrei torah of the bar mitzvah boy; the overjoyed dancing, the ecstasy of all attendees; the stirring tefillos; the delightful Shabbos Seudos; the inspiration when hearing the divrei torah of the, talmidim of Nachlas Avos. May he merit seeing much nachas of all his children: Mordecha Stauber, Chaim Levi, Hershel Weingarten, Mordecha Walter, Hershel Grinsfeld, Aron Gold, Chananya Gold, DovBerish Weber, Yoel Y. HFPJC agent discovering the matzeivas & foundation of the ohel

Fragment of gravestone, which seems to belong to the Rebbe, Rabbi Chaim Meir Yechiel zy" a

During the cleaning in the Mogielnica cemetery.

With appreciation for the esteemed organization FODZ and CEO Monika Krawczyk find fundaments of another ohel next to the first ohel, which apparently is the ohel of Rabbi Yaakov Mogielnica, son of the illustrious Rebbe, Rabbi Elimelech of Lizhensk ztz" l.

Notes of the historical discovery:

- Rabbi of Spinka, descendant of Mogielnica, is extremely disturbed by the dire reports of the condition in the cemetery, and endeavors to verify the accurate borders of the cemetery and revered ohel.
- HFPJC agents visit the cemetery on the request of the Rabbi and discover gravestones of the great Mogielnica Rabbi and his mother.
- The representatives make progress on verifying precise borders of cemetery and ohel, to enable the construction of a fence around the cemetery.
- The remarkable discovery occurs during the preparation of the impressive pilgrimage of the Spinka Rabbi to visit the gravesites of his holy ancestors and Rabbis.
- Right before leaving the cemetery, the representatives of HFPJC are once again amazed to
