

His rectitude is sustained forever

In memory of a dear and righteous friend who assisted the holy work many years in his native city Tokay, Hungary

R' Moshe ben R' Yosef Chanoch Levi a"h

Who recently returned his pure soul to Hashem to the deep sorrow of his many friends. Since he didn't leave any children, we ask of klal yisroel to learn l'ilui nishmas. May he continue to help us from his exalted place in heaven.

• A successful assembly was recently held in the home of the Shopron'er rabbi shlit"a, where a partial restoration committee was formed. Additional descendants will join the committee in the next few weeks.

• It was confirmed that the reparations of the very dilapidated fence will be funded and launched immediately.

• The restoration of the nearly 1,000 gravestones is also scheduled to begin right after the fence phase.

• During the assembly, recent visitors relayed personal observations of the cemetery, in which they affirmed that they've never seen a site so neglected. It is known that Zborov was home to many Torah luminaries and great tzadikim.
