A brief overview on our weekly activities

The Karlin (Pinsk), Belarus cemetery

Resting Place of Rabbeinu R' Aron Hagodol of Karlin zt"l
Niftar, 19 Nissan 1772 - Talmid of the holy Maggid of Mehritz

Headed by the Admo"r of Karlin-Stolin Shlit"a,
R' Yaakov Steierman, Chairman

Short overview of past and present activities:

- A committee comprised of several prominent individuals is set up to assist with the rescue of the holy site
- Several trips are conducted by Avoyseinu to ascertain the borders of the cemetery, followed by thorough investigations to determine the Resting Place of the holy R' Aron Hagodol of Karlin zt"l
- Close ties are established with local government officials in order to be able to receive the necessary permits to continue restoration work
- Erev Pesach 2018: an urgent call for help—there is desecration at the holy site r"l
- Immediately on Motzei Yom Tov, Avoyseinu staff travels to the cemetery. They are joined by Chassidim of the Admo"r of Karlin-Stolin Shlit"a, freinds of the Pinsk Kehila Shlit"a, headed by Harav R' Moshe Fima Shlit"a, Rav of Pinsk and head of Mosdos Yad Yisroel Karlin-Stolin, and Harav R' Yochanan Bierman Shlit"a. Every effort is made to rescue the holy site.
- A meeting is conducted with the appropriate officials to try to stop the continued excavation at the holy site. It is agreed that the work will be on hold until a satisfactory plan is devised that will not damage the cemetery. With Hashem's help we will succeed. (details will follow).
